I think I do. I signed up for the W.C. Fritos fan club in 2nd or 3rd grade. I remember getting a certificate and a pad to write munch-o-grams. Dana Joedi, That is so funny! Its amazing how we can remember some of these things that were only around for a short time, but brought us joy or gave us something to do (like joining the clubs, Like Willie Wonka's Chocolate Factory etc, I loved making my own chocolate back then) Maureen and I thought we found some crazy foam soap a few months ago at a flea market, it was up real high on a shelf, and the lady who was about 5ft tall had to go up and get it, but it was some kind of spanish talc and lotions with penguin heads, so we purchased it anyway, cause we felt bad, We were all excited, but It was still fun to see something that you have not thought about for years.

Munch-o-grams that is too cute!, I just remember collecting the erasers for the tops of my pencils. But since I joined every club that I could find, just to get something in the mail, I probably joined that one too! ~~Babs Sent via Deja.com <http://www.deja.com/> Before you buy.

being my FIRST job that was not 'under the table' wages since I was only 13..) anyway, we used to have pencil toppers as promotion gimmicks all the time, and out of boredom, end of the day, before we would do our closing chores.. the crew would drop them into the hot oil vat (french fry bin) and watch them melt. MOST of the time we were able to get the residue out, but I remember that halloween when I came into work the next night, the fry bin was down and out cuz they couldnt figure out WHY there was 'black gunk' all over the french fries when they started it up in the morning...EWWWWW...*they had to clean out the vats thoroughly before we could use them again..~zz

Ooooh, that reminds me to share my latest snoopy dance occasion. My husband thinks I have totally and finally cracked. Guess what I bought at Walmart? New EARTH SHOES! They are not like the ones we had in the 70s, but they are SOO comfortable, and they have the Earth tag on them, and I was wearing them all over the house prancing around...~~~~ He just knew he needed to call the men in the white coats. Don't take much to make me happy!! Happy 2000! Debby

Mare those were some of my favorites too! I was thrilled to see speed racer and the bannana splits on tv again, but would love to see Kimba, or does any one remember the other cartoon Gigantor the space age robot? I can only remember the first few lines of the song, but no one else I know can remember this one!
